(From Dance Suite)

EASTMAN-ROCHESTER SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA and EASTMAN SCHOOL CHOIR
HOWARD HANSON, Conductor

ALBUM M-889*, 6 SIDES List Price $3.50

Dr. Howard Hanson is one of the outstanding musical personalities in America today. "The Lament for Beowulf" is one of Hanson's distinguished creations. It is a powerful work, richly orchestrated and the performance under Hanson himself is the last word in authenticity and understanding

VARIATIONS ON A THEME OF TSCHAIKOWSKY A. Arensky
(Op. 35a)

PHILADELPHIA CHAMBER STRING SIMFONIETTA under the direction of FABIEN SEVITZKY

ALBUM M-896*, 4 SIDES List Price $2.50

This impeccable chamber ensemble, under the direction of Fabien Sevitzky, brings to us one of the finest and most popular works of Anton Arensky. The work is based on a melody taken from one of the loveliest Tschaikowsky songs. It is a melody which you all know and Arensky's variations upon it are as charming as the melody itself.

SUITE IN A MINOR For Flute and Strings

Georg Philipp Telemann

THE PHILADELPHIA ORCHESTRA, EUGENE ORMANDY, Conductor, WILLIAM KINCAID, Flute

ALBUM M-890*, 4 SIDES List Price $2.50

It will probably surprise the modern concert-goer to know that Georg Philipp Telemann (1681-1767) was in his own day regarded more highly than his friend and contemporary Johann Sebastian Bach. While posterity has reversed the judgment of the relative merits of the two men, one hearing of this Telemann Suite will convince anyone that Telemann is a composer of the first importance. This Suite is a sheer delight. The performance of Mr. Kincaid, the distinguished flutist of the Philadelphia Orchestra, constitutes some of the most exciting flute playing ever captured on discs.

CHICAGO SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA under the direction of FREDERICK STOCK

ARTUR RUBINSTEIN, Pianist

ALBUM M-893, 8 SIDES List Price $4.50

It is our opinion this is one of the finest albums Artur Rubinstein has given us to date. The Intermezzi and Rhapsodies of Brahms are among the foundation stones of modern piano music. We have rarely captured on records a performance so completely brilliant and so profoundly felt. Rubinstein's performance is the very quintessence of musicianship. It is added confirmation—if such confirmation be necessary—that Mr. Rubinstein is in the front rank of the world's pianists.

SYMPHONY IN G MAJOR FOR ORGAN Leo Sowerby

E. POWER BIGGS Playing the Organ in Memorial Church, Harvard University

ALBUM M-894*, 8 SIDES List Price $4.50

Leo Sowerby is not only one of America's finest composers, but is also one of America's outstanding organists. His Organ Symphony presented here is therefore written with knowledge and insight into the tremendous possibilities of the modern organ. This symphony, in the opinion of many, is one of the most vital contributions to modern organ literature. E. Power Biggs needs little introduction to record audiences. He has been justly acclaimed as one of the finest organists of our time. His performance realizes fully the power and the scope of this exceptional work.

QUARTET in G MINOR On Negro Themes (Op. 19) Daniel Gregory Mason

ALLEGRO INEVITABILE Mary Howe

THE COOLIDGE QUARTET (William Kroll, 1st Violin—Jack Pepper, 2nd Violin—Nicholas Moldavan, Viola—Victor Gottlieb, Cello)

ALBUM M-891*, 6 SIDES List Price $3.50

Our program of recording the most distinguished representatives of American music is carried forward by the recording of this notable quartet by Daniel Gregory Mason. As composer, teacher and author, Dr Mason has long been a vital influence in American music. This engaging quartet on Negro themes, one of which is "Deep River," is a delightful example of American music based upon native American tunes. The reverse side contains an ingratiating composition by Mary Howe, one of America's outstanding women composers. The performance by the Coolidge String Quartet is the last word in technical finish and musical understanding.

Patriotic

THE CRISIS Thomas Paine

A Reading by PAUL MUNI

10-1005 (10" RECORD) List Price $0.75

This unusual recording deserves very special attention. There are few documents in American history more timely than Tom Paine's "The Crisis." Tom Paine was America's outstanding publicist during the dark days of our revolutionary war for independence. Today when we are fighting for the Four Freedoms, Tom Paine's words, recently quoted by President Roosevelt, take on new meaning for us. Paul Muni reads the script with a sobriety and a passion which few can equal and none exceed.
